Heritage Open Days at St. Mary's Convent Brentford

The convent at 10, The Butts, Brentford, has joined Heritage Open Days, England's largest festival of history and culture, and is opening for the first time as part of the scheme on Saturday September 20th, 2025.

The original building is a Grade-II listed Georgian house with many beautiful original features still in situ. The convent is set in attractive grounds, and includes harmoniously designed modern care home facilities.

The tour includes historic displays, exhibitions of archives and beautiful art works.

The convent will be open for pre-booked guided tours only, at 10am, 12 noon and 3pm, which will include the lobby, community room, heritage rooms and modern chapel. Please note that there is no wheelchair access to the foundress's room.

Those wishing to book a tour should contact the archivist, Mr Paul Shaw, on 020-8568-7305, or at paul.shaw@psmgs.org.uk

St. Mary's Convent is ten minutes walk from Brentford railway station, served by trains from London Waterloo. The nearest tube stations are Boston Manor and Northfields. Buses: 235, 237, 267, E2, E88.
